C. L. KATIAL,
Director General.

New Delhi, the 31st December 1949

No. RE 149.—The following Draft of certain regulations which the Employees' State Insurance Corporation proposes to make in exercise of the powers conferred by section 97 of the Employees' State Insurance Act, 1948 (XXXIV of 1948), is published, as required by sub-section (1) of the said Act, for the information of all persons likely to be affected thereby and notice is hereby given that the draft will be taken into consideration on or after the 15th February, 1950.

Any objection or suggestion which may be received from any person with respect to the said draft before the date specified will be considered by the said Corporation.

DRAFT REGULATIONS.

1. Short title.—These Regulations may be called the Employees' State Insurance Corporation (Provident Fund) Regulations, 1949.

2. Administration.—The Fund shall be held by the Corporation and shall be administered by the Standing Committee through a Sub-Committee consisting of—

(i) A Chairman and one other member nominated by the Standing Committee from among its members.

(ii) Two representatives of the staff of the Corporation to be nominated by the Director General.

(iii) The Director General who shall be an ex-officio member of the Sub Committee.

This Sub-Committee shall hereafter be called the Administration Committee.

3. Meetings of the Administration Committee.—At every meeting of the Administration Committee the Chairman or, in his absence, any other member elected from among those present shall preside. The presence of at least three members of the Committee shall be necessary to form a quorum for transaction of business. Each member shall have one vote and in cases of equality of votes the Chairman shall have a casting vote.

4. Annual Accounts.—The accounts of the Fund shall be made yearly as at the 31st March and an audited statement of the accounts as at that date shall be submitted to the Standing Committee after adoption by a meeting of the Administration Committee to be held not later than 31st August every year and a copy of such statement shall be made available for inspection by subscribers at each office of the Corporation as soon as may be practicable after it has been submitted to the Standing Committee.

5. Membership.—(i) Every employee of the Corporation who is not a temporary employee and who is in receipt of a pay of not less than rupees thirty per mensem shall be bound to subscribe to the Fund. An employee in receipt of a pay of less than rupees thirty per mensem may subscribe to the Fund if he so desires.

(ii) A temporary employee and any other person in receipt of other than actual remuneration from the Corporation may subscribe to the Fund if he so desires and if he is so permitted by the Administration Committee.

(iii) Employees appointed on contract for a period exceeding two years shall also subscribe to the Fund.

(iv) The Principal Officers who are entitled to the benefits of Provident Fund under the Employees' State Insurance (Central) Rules, 1949 shall also subscribe to the Fund.

Explanation.—For the purpose of this regulation an employee who is on probation shall not be deemed to be a temporary employee.

6. Rate of Subscription.—The rate of subscription shall be as from the date of appointment under the Corporation or from the date on which the subscriber commences to subscribe be six and one-fourth percent of his pay; such subscriptions shall be deducted by the Corporation from his monthly pay in amounts calculated to the nearest anna.

7. Subscription of a subscriber on leave.—The subscription of a subscriber who is absent on leave shall, during the period of such absence, be assessed on his leave pay; but any subscriber shall be at liberty to subscribe on the full amount of his pay provided that notice in writing of his desire to do so is given by him not less than 14 days in advance of the first pay of his leave salary to the officer responsible for paying him.

8. Corporation's Subscription.—Save as otherwise provided in these regulations, the Corporation shall contribute every month a sum equal to that subscribed under regulation 6 by each subscriber to his account in the Fund;

Provided that no such contribution shall be made by the Corporation in respect of subscribers who have been permitted to subscribe under sub-regulation (ii) of regulation 5;

Provided further that in the case of a temporary employee subscribing under that sub-regulation, who is subsequently confirmed, the Corporation shall contribute a sum equal to the amount subscribed by him during the period of his temporary service.

Explanation.—For purposes of this regulation and regulation 6, 'Pay' shall have the meaning assigned to it in the Employees' State Insurance (Staff) Regulations, 1949.

9. Non-Contributory Subscription by employees.—An employee of the Corporation, if he so desires, may contribute to his account in the Fund, at such rate, over and above the rate specified in regulation 6, as he may decide; provided that such contribution shall not be taken into consideration for the purposes of the Corporation's contribution under regulation 8.

10. Interest.—The Corporation shall credit interest on the amount standing to each subscriber's credit at the rate which shall be fixed by the Corporation at the end of each year, and which shall be the equivalent of the average yield to redemption throughout the year of rupee securities of the Government of India of approximately 20 years maturity rounded off to the nearest one half percent above; such interest shall be calculated to the nearest anna on the monthly contributions of each subscriber's account and shall be credited to the amount yearly as on the 31st March.

11. Investment of monies belonging to the Employees' State Insurance Corporation Provident Fund.—All monies belonging to the Provident Fund shall be deposited into the Reserve Bank of India or such other banks as may be approved by the Central Government from time to time or invested in securities mentioned or referred to in clauses (a) and (d) of section 20 of Indian Trusts Act 1882 (II of 1882) subject to the condition that the securities in which investments are made are payable both in respect of capital and of interest in the Dominion of India.

12. Annual statement of each subscriber's account.—Every subscriber to the Fund shall receive an annual statement showing the amount standing to his credit in the Fund as at the 31st March of that year.

13. Advances from the Fund.—A temporary advance may be granted to a subscriber from the amount standing at his credit at the discretion of the Director General subject to the following conditions:—

(a) No advance shall be granted unless the sanctioning authority is satisfied that the applicant's pecuniary circumstances justify it and that it will be expended on the following object or objects and not otherwise:—

- (i) To pay expenses incurred in connection with the prolonged illness of the applicant or any person actually dependent on him;
- (ii) To pay for the overseas passage for reasons of health or education of the applicant or any person actually dependent on him;
- (iii) To pay obligatory expenses on a scale appropriate to the applicant's status in connection with marriages, funerals or ceremonies which by his religion it is incumbent on him to perform.

(b) An advance shall not, except for special reasons, exceed three months' pay, and shall in no case exceed the amount of subscriptions and interest thereon standing to the credit of the subscriber in the Fund.

(c) An advance shall not, except for special reasons, be granted until at least twelve months after the final repayment of all previous advances together with interest thereon unless the amount already advanced does not exceed two-thirds of the amount admissible under clause (b).

(d) The sanctioning authority shall record in writing its reason for granting the advance.

Provided that if the reason is of a confidential nature it may be communicated to the Chief Accounts Officer personally and/or confidentially.

(e) An advance shall be recovered from the subscriber in such number of equal monthly instalments as the sanctioning authority may direct; but such number shall not be less than twelve unless the subscriber so elect, or in any case more than twenty four. A subscriber may at his option, make repayment in a smaller number of instalments than that prescribed. Each instalment shall be a number of whole rupees, the amount of the advance being raised or reduced, if necessary, to admit the fixation of such instalments.

(f) Recoveries shall be made monthly, commencing from the first payment of a full month's salary after the advance is granted. Recovery shall not be made, except with the subscriber's consent, while he is on leave or in receipt of subsistence grant.

(g) If more than one advance has been made to the subscriber, each advance shall be treated separately for the purposes of recovery.

(h) After the principal of the advance has been fully repaid, interest shall be paid thereon at the rate at which interest is payable by the Corporation on the amount standing at the credit of each subscriber. Interest shall be ordinarily recovered in one instalment, but if the period of repayment exceeds 12 months, interest may be recovered in two equal monthly instalments.

14. Subject to the conditions in regulations 15 to 22—

(a) The amount of subscription with interest thereon standing to the credit of a subscriber in the Fund may be withdrawn to meet—

- (i) Payments towards an insurance policy;
- (ii) Purchase of a single premium insurance policy;
- (iii) Payment of single premium or subscription to a family pension fund approved in this behalf by the Administration Committee.

Provided that no amount shall be withdrawn—

- (1) Before the details of the proposed policy have been submitted to the Chief Accounts Officer and accepted by him as suitable; or
- (2) To meet any payment or purchase made or affected more than twelve months before withdrawal; or
- (3) In excess of the amount required to meet a premium or subscriptions actually due for payment within six months of the date of withdrawal.

Provided further that no amounts may be withdrawn to meet any payments or purchase in respect of educational endowment policy if that policy is due for payment in whole or part before the subscriber's age of normal superannuation;

- (c) Any amount withdrawn under clause (a) shall be paid in whole rupees rounded to the nearest whole rupee (annas eight counting as the next higher rupee).

15. If the subscriber withdraws any amount standing to his credit in the fund for any of the purposes specified in clause (a) of Regulation 14 he shall continue to pay to the Fund the subscription payable by him under regulation 6.

16. (1) A subscriber who desires to withdraw any amount under clause (a) of Regulation 14 shall—

- (a) intimate the reason for the withdrawal to the Chief Accounts Officer by letter;
- (b) make arrangements with the Chief Accounts Officer for the withdrawal;
- (c) send to the Chief Accounts Officer, within such period as the Chief Accounts Officer may require, receipts or certified copies of receipts in order to satisfy the Chief Accounts Officer that the amount withdrawn was duly applied for the purpose specified in clause (a) of Regulation 14.

(2) The Chief Accounts Officer shall order the recovery of any amount withdrawn in respect of which he has not been satisfied in the manner required by clause (c) of sub-regulation (1) with interest thereon at the prescribed rate, from the emoluments of the subscriber and place to the credit of the subscriber in the fund.

17. (1) The Corporation will not make any payments on behalf of subscribers to Insurance Companies, nor take steps to keep a policy alive.

(2) It is immaterial what form the policy takes provided that it shall be one effected by the subscriber himself on his own life and shall unless it is a policy expressed on the face of it to be for the benefit of his wife, or of his wife and children or any of them be such as may be legally assigned by the subscriber himself to the Corporation.

Explanation.—(1) A policy on the joint lives of the subscriber and his wife shall be deemed to be a policy on the life of the subscriber himself for the purpose of this sub-regulation.

(2) A policy which has been assigned to the subscriber's wife shall not be accepted unless either the policy is first re-assigned to the subscriber or the subscriber and his wife both join in an appropriate assignment.

(3) The policy may not be effected for the benefit of any beneficiary other than the wife of the subscriber or his wife and children or any of them.

18. (1) The policy, within three months after the first withdrawal from the fund in respect of the policy, or in the case of an Insurance Company whose headquarters are outside India, within such further period as the Chief Accounts Officer, if he is satisfied by the production of the completion certificate (interim receipt) may fix, shall—

- (a) unless it is a policy expressed on the fact of it to be for the benefit of the wife of the subscriber, or of his wife and children or any of them, be assigned to the Corporation as security for the payment of any sum which may become payable to the fund under Regulations 19 to 21, and delivered to the Chief Accounts Officer, the assignment being made by endorsement on the policy in form D or form E or form F attached to these regulations according as the policy is on the life of the subscriber or on the joint lives of the subscriber and his wife or the policy has previously been assigned to the subscriber's wife.

- (b) if it is a policy expressed on the face of it to be for the benefit of the wife of the subscriber, or of his wife and children or any of them, be delivered to the Chief Accounts Officer.

(2) The Chief Accounts Officer shall satisfy himself by reference to the Insurance Company, where possible, that no prior assignment of the policy exists.

(3) Once a policy has been accepted by the Chief Accounts Officer for purpose of being financed from the Fund the terms of the policy shall not be altered nor shall the policy be exchanged for another policy without the prior consent of the Chief Accounts Officer to whom the details of the alteration or of the new policy shall be furnished.

(4) If the policy is not assigned and delivered, or delivered within the said period of three months or such further period as the Chief Accounts Officer may, under sub-regulation (1), have fixed, any amount withdrawn from the Fund in respect of the policy shall, with interest thereon at the prescribed rate, forthwith be paid or repaid as the case may be, by the subscriber, to the Fund, or, in default be ordered by the Chief Accounts Officer to be recovered by deduction from the emoluments of the subscriber, by instalments or otherwise, as may be directed by the Administration Committee.

(5) Notice of assignment of the policy shall be given by the subscriber to the Insurance Company, and the acknowledgment of the notice by the Insurance Company shall be sent to the Chief Accounts Officer within three months of the date of assignment.

(6) The subscriber shall not during the currency of the policy, draw any bonus the drawal of which during such currency is optional under the terms of the policy, and the amount of any bonus which under the terms of the policy, the subscriber has no option to refrain from drawing during its currency shall be paid forthwith into the Fund by the subscriber or in default recovered by deduction from his emoluments by instalments or otherwise as Administration Committee direct.

19. (1) Save as provided by sub-regulation (2) or Regulation 21, when the subscriber :—

- (a) quits the services ; or
- (b) has proceeded on leave preparatory to retirement and applied to the Chief Accounts Officer for reassignment or return of the policy ; or
- (c) while on leave, has been permitted to retire or declared by competent Medical Authority to be unfit for further service and applies to the Chief Accounts Officer for re-assignment or return of the policy ; or
- (d) pays or repays to the Fund the whole of any amount withdrawn from the fund for any of the purposes in sub-clause (i) and (ii) of clause (a) of Regulation 14 with interest thereon at the prescribed rate, the Chief Accounts Officer shall—
  - (i) if the policy has been assigned to the Corporation under Regulation 18, re-assign the policy in form G attached to these regulations to the subscriber or to the subscriber and the joint assured as the case may be and make it over to the subscriber, together with a signed notice of the re-assignment addressed to the Insurance Company ;
  - (ii) if the policy has been delivered to him under clause (b) of Sub-Regulation (i) of Regulation 18, make over the policy to the subscriber.

Provided that, if the subscriber, after proceeding leave preparatory to retirement or after being, while leave, permitted to retire or declared by a competent medical authority to be unfit for further service, returns to duty, any policy so assigned or made over shall, if it has not matured or been assigned or charged or encumbered in any way, be again assigned to the Corporation and delivered to the Chief Accounts Officer or again be delivered to the Chief Accounts Officer, as the case may be, in the manner provided in Regulation 18, and thereupon the provisions of these Regulations shall, as far as may be, again apply in respect of the policy.

Provided further that, if the policy has matured or been assigned or charged or encumbered in any way, the provisions of sub-regulation (3) of Regulation 18 applicable to a failure to assign and deliver a policy shall apply.

(2) Save as provided by Sub-Regulation (2) of Regulation 21, when the subscriber dies before quitting the service, Chief Accounts Officer shall—

(i) if the policy has been assigned to the Corporation under Regulation 18, reassign the policy in form II attached to these regulations to such person as may be legally entitled to receive it and shall make over the policy to such person together with a signed notice of the re-assignment addressed to the Insurance Company.

(ii) if the policy has been delivered to him under clause (b) of sub-regulation (1) of regulation 18, make over the policy to the beneficiary, if any, or, if there is no beneficiary to such person as may be legally entitled to receive it.

20. (1) If a policy assigned to the Corporation under regulation 18 matures before the subscriber quits the service or if a policy on joint lives of subscriber and his wife, assigned under the said regulations falls due for payment by reason of the wife's death, the Chief Accounts Officer shall, save as provided by sub-regulation (2) of regulation 21 proceed as follows :—

(i) if the amount assured together with the amount of any accrued bonuses is greater than the whole of the amount withdrawn from the Fund in respect of the policy with interest thereon at the prescribed rate, the Chief Accounts Officer shall re-assign the policy in the form I attached to these regulations to the subscriber or to the subscriber and the joint assured as the case may be, and make it over to the subscriber, but shall pay or repay to the Fund the whole of any amount withdrawn with interest, and in default, the provisions of sub-regulation (3) of Regulation 18 applicable to a failure to assign and deliver the policy, shall apply ;

(ii) if the amount assured together with the amount of any accrued bonuses is less than the whole of the amount withdrawn with interest, the Chief Accounts Officer shall realise the amount assured together with any accrued bonuses and shall place the amount so realised to the credit of the subscriber in the Fund.

(2) Save as provided by sub-regulation (2) of Regulation 21 if a policy under Sub-Regulation (1) of Regulation 18 matures before the subscriber quits the service, the Chief Accounts Officer shall make over the policy to the subscriber ;

Provided that if the interest in the policy of the wife of the subscriber, or of his wife and children or of any of them, as expressed on the face of the policy, expires when the policy matures, the subscriber, if the policy moneys are paid to him by the Insurance Company, shall immediately on receipt thereof pay or repay to the Fund either—

(i) the whole of any amount withdrawn from the Fund in respect of the policy with interest thereon at the prescribed rate ; or

(ii) an amount equal to the amount assured together with any accrued bonuses, whichever is less, and in default the provisions of sub-regulation (4) of Regulation 18 applicable to a failure to assign and deliver the policy shall apply.

21. (1) If the policy lapses or becomes assigned otherwise than to the Corporation, under Regulation 18, charged or encumbered the provisions of sub-regulation (4) of Regulation 18 applicable to a failure to assign and deliver the policy shall apply—

(2) If the Chief Accounts Officer receives notice of—

(a) an assignment (other than an assignment to the Corporation under Regulation 18) or

(b) a charge or encumbrance on ; or

(c) an order of a Court restraining dealings with the policy or any amount realised thereon, the Chief Accounts Officer shall not—

(i) re-assign or make over the policy as provided in Regulation 19 ; or

(ii) realise the amount assured by the policy or reassign or make over the policy, as provided in Regulation 20 ; but shall forthwith refer the matter to the Administration Committee.

22. Notwithstanding anything contained in these regulations, if the sanctioning authority is satisfied that money drawn as an advance from the Fund under Regulation 13 or withdrawn from the Fund under clause (a) of Regulation 14 has been utilised for a purpose other than that for which the sanction was given to the drawal or withdrawal of the money, the amount in question, shall, with interest at the prescribed rate, forthwith be repaid or paid as the case may be, by the subscriber to the Fund or in default, be ordered to be recovered by deduction in one sum from the emoluments of the subscriber, even if he be on leave and if the total amount to be paid or repaid, as the case may be, be more than half the subscriber's emoluments, recoveries shall be made in monthly instalments of moieties of his emoluments till the entire amount recoverable be repaid or paid, as the case may be, by him.

Note.—The term emoluments as used in this regulation does not include subsistence grant.

23. Interest to cease on termination of service or death of subscriber.—Interest on all sums standing in the books of the Fund to the credit of a subscriber shall cease on the day on which he ceases to be in service of the Corporation or the day on which he dies, whichever is earlier.

24. Payment of amount standing to credit of subscriber.—The sum standing to the credit of a subscriber shall become payable on the termination of his service or on his death provided that there may, if the Administration Committee so directs, be deducted therefrom and paid to the Corporation—

(a) any amount due under a liability incurred by the subscriber to the Corporation upto the total amount contributed by the Corporation to his account, including the interest credited in respect thereof ; or

(b) where the subscriber has been dismissed from his employment on account of misconduct or gross negligence or where the subscriber has resigned his employment under the Corporation within five years of the commencement of his service, the whole or any part of the amount of the contributions by the Corporation together with interest credited in respect thereof.

25. (1) A subscriber shall as soon as may be after joining the Fund, send to the Chief Accounts Officer, a nomination conferring on one or more persons the right to receive the amount that may stand to his credit in the Fund, in the event of his death before that amount has become payable, or having become payable has not been paid.

Provided that if, at the time of making the nomination, the subscriber has a family, the nomination shall not be in favour of any person or persons other than the members of his family.

(2) If a subscriber nominates more than one person under sub-regulation (1), he shall specify in the nomination the amount of share payable to each of the nominees in such manner as to cover the whole of the amount that may stand to his credit in the Fund at any time.

(3) Every nomination shall be in Forms A, AI, B or BI, annexed to these regulations as is appropriate in the circumstances.

(4) A subscriber may at any time cancel a nomination by sending a notice in writing to the Chief Accounts Officer.

Provided that the subscriber shall, along with such notice, send a fresh nomination made in accordance with the provisions of this regulation.

(5) A subscriber may provide in a nomination :—

(a) in respect of any specified nominee, that in the event of his predeceasing the subscriber, the right conferred upon that nominee shall pass to such other person as may be specified in the nomination ;

(b) that the nomination shall become invalid in the event of the happening of a contingency, specified therein ; provided that if at the time of making the nomination the subscriber has no family, he shall provide in the nomination that it shall become invalid in the event of his subsequently acquiring a family.

(6) Immediately on the death of a nominee in respect of whom no special provision has been made in the nomination under clause (a) of sub-regulation (5) or on the occurrence of any event by reason of which the nomination becomes invalid in pursuance of clause (b) of sub-regulation (5) or the proviso thereto, the subscriber shall send to the Chief Accounts Officer a notice in writing cancelling the nomination, together with a fresh nomination made in accordance with the provision of this regulation.

(7) Every nomination made and every notice of cancellation given, by a subscriber shall, to the extent that it is valid, take effect on the date on which it is received by the Chief Accounts Officer.

Explanation.—In this regulation, and in regulation 26, 'family' means the wife of wives, or husband, and children of a subscriber, and the widow or widows and children of a deceased son of a subscriber ;

Provided that if a subscriber proves that his wife has been judicially separated from him or has ceased under the customary law of the community to which she belongs to be entitled to maintenance she shall no longer be deemed to be a member of the family unless the subscriber subsequently indicates by express notification in writing to the Administration Committee that she shall continue to be so regarded ;

Provided further that if a female subscriber expresses by a notice in writing to the Administration Committee her desire to exclude her husband from the family, the husband shall no longer be deemed to be a member of the family unless the subscriber subsequently cancels formally in writing her notification excluding him.

26. Payment on death of a subscriber.—On the death of a subscriber :

(i) when a subscriber leaves a family :—

(a) if a nomination made by the subscriber in accordance with these regulations in favour of a member or members of his family subsists, the amount standing to his credit in the Fund or the part thereof to which the nomination relates shall become payable to the nominee or nominees in the proportion specified in the nomination ;

(b) if no such nomination in favour of a member of members of the family of the subscriber subsists or if such nomination relates only to a part of the amount standing to his credit in the Fund, the whole amount or the part thereof to which the nomination does not relate, as the case may be, shall, notwithstanding any nomination purporting to be in favour of any person or persons other than a member or members of his family, become payable to the members of his family in equal shares ;

Provided that no share shall be payable to :—

(i) sons who have attained legal majority ;

(ii) sons of a deceased son who have attained legal majority ;

(iii) married daughters whose husbands are alive ;

(iv) married daughters of a deceased son whose husbands are alive.

if any member of the family other than those specified in clauses (i), (ii), (iii), and (iv) above is alive ;

Provided further that the widow nor widows and child or children of a deceased son shall receive between them in equal parts only the share which that son would have received if he had survived the subscriber.

27. The accounts of the Fund shall be operated on by the Chief Accounts Officer of the Corporation who is hereby authorised to arrange for all payments required to be made under these regulations and to re-assign in accordance with these regulations all insurance policies assigned to the Corporation.

28. Agreement to be executed by subscribers.—Every employee on becoming a subscriber to the Fund shall execute an agreement in the following form ;

" I hereby declare that I have read and understood the Regulations of the Employees' State Insurance Corporation Staff Provident Fund and I hereby undertake to subscribe to the said Fund and I hereby agree to be bound by the said Regulations.
